

END USER LICENSE AGREEMENT (EULA)

For users of the Networking.One web platform

Effective Date: November 3, 2025

Version: 1.0

1. GENERAL PROVISIONS

1.1. This End User License Agreement (hereinafter referred to as the "Agreement" or "EULA") sets forth the terms and conditions for using the Networking.One web platform (hereinafter referred to as the "Platform"), available at <https://networking.one>, and constitutes a legally binding agreement between:

- IP Rights Holder: AE Intellectual Property LTD, registered in Cyprus (hereinafter "IP Owner"), website: www.aeip.ltd, which owns all intellectual property rights to the Platform; and
- Service Provider (Licensor): Advanced Engineering 3D Printers LLC, registered in Georgia (hereinafter "Licensor" or "Service Provider"), contact email: legal@networking.one, which operates the Platform under license from the IP Owner and provides services to Users; and
- User: Any individual or legal entity that accepts the terms of this Agreement (hereinafter referred to as the "User", "Client", or "you").

1.2. Use of the Platform is permitted only upon full and unconditional acceptance by the User of the terms of this Agreement, the Terms of Service, the Privacy Policy, the Consent Form for Personal Data Processing, the Cookie Policy, the Marketing Communications Consent, and the Service Level Agreement, which are integral parts of this Agreement (collectively, the "Related Policies").

1.3. The Licensor maintains internal Personal Data Processing Regulations which define the technical, organizational, and procedural measures for ensuring GDPR, UK DPA 2018, and PECR compliance. While these internal regulations are not contractually binding on Users, they are publicly available for transparency and demonstrate the Licensor's commitment to data protection.

1.4. This Agreement constitutes a public offer. Use of the Platform signifies full and unconditional acceptance of all its terms.

1.5. By clicking "I Accept" or by accessing or using the Platform, you acknowledge that you have read, understood, and agree to be bound by this Agreement and all Related Policies.

2. TERMS AND DEFINITIONS

For purposes of this Agreement, the following terms shall have the meanings specified below:

Term	Definition
Platform	The Networking.One software and web service provided for professional networking, contact management, event organization, and collaboration.
Website	The page at https://networking.one on the Internet, serving as the official source for publication of the Agreement and Related Policies.
IP Owner	AE Intellectual Property LTD (Cyprus), the entity that owns all intellectual property rights to the Platform, including source code, trademarks, designs, and all related assets. Website: www.aeip.ltd
Licensor / Service Provider	Advanced Engineering 3D Printers LLC (Georgia), the entity authorized by the IP Owner to operate the Platform and provide services to Users.
Client	A legal entity, individual entrepreneur, or other person who has entered into an agreement with the Licensor, paid for, and received administrative access to the Platform in accordance with the selected Service Plan.
User	An individual for whom the Client has requested and obtained access to the Platform under this License, or an individual using the Platform directly. The Client is also a User.
Content	Any data, links, materials, documents uploaded or created by the User within the Platform.
License	The non-exclusive, limited right to use the Platform under the terms defined in this Agreement.
Service Plan	The subscription tier selected by the Client, defining the number of users, storage capacity, features, and support level (Starter, Professional, Business, Enterprise, or Custom).
Personal Data	Information relating to an identified or identifiable natural person, as defined by GDPR and applicable data protection laws.
Related Policies	Collectively, the Terms of Service, Privacy Policy, Consent Form for Personal Data Processing, Cookie Policy, Marketing Communications Consent, and Service Level Agreement.

Note: Where this Agreement refers to "Client," "User," "Customer," or "you," these terms are used interchangeably to refer to the individual or entity using the Platform, unless context requires otherwise.

3. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY OWNERSHIP AND LICENSE GRANT

3.1. Intellectual Property Ownership

All rights to the Platform, including but not limited to source code, architecture, design, databases, algorithms, trademarks, logos, domain names, and all other intellectual property, are owned exclusively by AE Intellectual Property LTD (IP Owner).

The Service Provider (Advanced Engineering 3D Printers LLC) operates the Platform under an exclusive license from the IP Owner and is authorized to sublicense usage rights to end Users under the terms of this Agreement.

3.2. License Grant to Users

Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the Licensor, on behalf of and with authorization from the IP Owner, grants the Client and Users designated by the Client, within the framework of the Client's selected Service Plan, a non-exclusive, non-transferable, limited license to use the Platform solely for the following purposes:

- Internal communication and collaboration
- Personal and professional contact and relationship management
- Event organization and tracking
- Task management and workflow coordination
- Building and maintaining professional networks within families, organizations, groups, and societies

3.3. User Restrictions

The User shall NOT:

- Copy, distribute, decompile, reverse engineer, or modify the Platform, or create derivative works based on the Platform
- Use the Platform to provide services to third parties (SaaS, reselling) without the Licensor's and IP Owner's prior written permission
- Transfer their rights under this Agreement or their login credentials to third parties

- Use the Platform for any unlawful purpose or in violation of any applicable laws or regulations
- Attempt to gain unauthorized access to any portion of the Platform or related systems
- Use automated systems (bots, scrapers) to access or extract data from the Platform without authorization
- Infringe upon the intellectual property rights of the IP Owner or any third party

3.4. License Scope and Term

3.4.1. The license to use the Networking.One Platform is granted to the Client for use by employees, members of a group, department, or other association within the Client's selected Service Plan limitations.

3.4.2. The Licenser provides access to the Client and Users to the Platform. Upon the Client's request, the Licenser creates User groups and determines access for the Client's Users to specific groups as planned by the Client. Activation and deactivation of Client and User access is managed by the Licenser.

3.4.3. The Client has the right to independently determine access rights for Users within their group to data in the Platform within the scope of the License. All data entered by Users is considered part of the Client's common database and may be accessible to other Users within the access rights established by the Client.

3.4.4. License Term: The License is granted for a period corresponding to the paid subscription. If the subscription is renewed, the License is automatically extended for a similar period unless otherwise agreed by the parties.

3.5. Compliance with Related Policies

Each Client and User granted access must comply with the terms of this Agreement and all Related Policies published by the Licenser on its Website.

4. UNIQUE FEATURES AND INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY PROTECTION

4.1. The Platform implements unique mechanisms for working with contacts, organizations, events, interactions, relationships, and tasks that differ from standard CRM systems. All algorithms, architectural solutions, visualizations, and data presentation methods are protected by copyright and proprietary rights of the IP Owner (AE Intellectual Property LTD) and used by the Licensor with permission.

4.2. Intellectual Property Protection. The Client and User undertake not to copy or reproduce the unique approaches implemented in the Platform for the purpose of creating similar software products. Any attempt to do so may result in:

- Immediate termination of the License
- Legal action by the IP Owner or Licensor
- Claims for damages and injunctive relief

4.3. The IP Owner and Licensor reserve all rights not expressly granted in this Agreement. No implied licenses are granted under this Agreement.

4.4. User Content Ownership. Users retain ownership of the Content they create and upload to the Platform. By uploading Content, Users grant the Licensor and IP Owner a limited, non-exclusive, worldwide license to store, process, and display such Content solely for the purpose of providing the Platform services.

4.5. Trademarks. Networking.One, the Networking.One logo, and other marks used in connection with the Platform are trademarks owned by the IP Owner (AE Intellectual Property LTD). Users may not use these marks without prior written permission from the IP Owner.

4.6. Feedback. If Users provide the Licensor or IP Owner with any feedback, suggestions, or ideas about the Platform, the IP Owner may use such feedback without any obligation to the User, and the User assigns all rights in such feedback to the IP Owner.

5. SPECIAL CONDITIONS FOR UNLIMITED ACCESS LICENSE

In the event that the Client acquires a license for unlimited access to the Platform for managing a community, organization, project, or professional group, the Licensor grants the right to provide access to the Platform to an unlimited number of Users who are members of such a community, subject to the following conditions:

5.1. The Client has the right to independently create, manage, and delete user accounts of members within the community, as well as determine their access rights to data and Platform functionality within the scope of the License.

5.2. The Client must ensure that all connected Users are informed about:

- Platform usage rules
- License terms
- Privacy Policy
- Personal Data Processing and Protection Policy
- The necessity of obtaining their consent for personal data processing

5.3. The Licensors has the right at any time to verify or request from the Client confirmation of Users' consent to personal data processing and compliance with the terms of this Agreement.

5.4. The Client remains liable for all actions taken by Users within their community and must implement appropriate internal controls and policies.

6. RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF THE PARTIES

6.1. User Rights

The User has the right to:

- Use the Platform within the scope of the granted License
- Enter, store, systematize, and process their data and Content
- Manage access to their data within the Platform's functionality
- Receive technical support in accordance with their Service Plan
- Request access to their personal data in accordance with the Privacy Policy
- Request rectification, deletion, or portability of their personal data as provided by applicable data protection laws (GDPR, UK DPA 2018)
- Withdraw consent for data processing at any time (subject to contractual obligations)
- Object to processing and request restriction of processing

6.2. User Obligations

The User must:

- Not violate the rights of third parties or post Content prohibited by law

- Comply with the terms of this Agreement and all Related Policies
- Ensure the confidentiality of their account credentials and immediately notify the Licensor of any unauthorized access
- Provide accurate and up-to-date information when registering and using the Platform
- Use the Platform in good faith and refrain from any actions that may harm the IP Owner, Licensor, other Users, or the Platform's functionality
- Comply with applicable data protection laws (GDPR, UK DPA 2018, PECR) when processing personal data of contacts within the Platform
- Not use the Platform to send spam, unsolicited communications, or engage in any form of harassment

6.3. Client Responsibilities

The Client shall:

- Inform members of their community about the Platform usage rules
- Bear responsibility for the actions of all Users granted access, including their compliance with applicable laws, terms of this Agreement, and the Licensor's internal policies
- Ensure that all Users have been properly authorized to access the Platform
- Maintain the security and confidentiality of administrative credentials
- Obtain consent for personal data processing from those to whom they provide access to the Platform, in accordance with the Consent Form for Personal Data Processing

6.4. The User independently determines the composition of Content and volume of data uploaded to the Platform and bears responsibility for its legality and accuracy.

6.5. Licensor Rights

The Licensor has the right to:

- Modify the Platform's functionality and License terms at any time, with notification to the User via the Website or email (at least 30 days' notice for material changes)
- Suspend or restrict Client and User access to the Platform in case of violation of the Agreement terms

- Use anonymized and aggregated User data for analytics and service improvement, in compliance with the Privacy Policy
- Terminate the License immediately in case of material breach of this Agreement
- Investigate and address any suspected violations of this Agreement
- Implement security measures to protect the Platform and User data

6.6. Licensor Obligations

The Licensor must:

- Ensure the Platform's operability in accordance with the Service Level Agreement, except in cases of force majeure and scheduled maintenance.
- Provide reasonable advance notice (at least 24 hours) of planned maintenance that may affect Platform availability.
- Ensure the protection of Users' personal data in accordance with applicable data protection legislation (GDPR, UK DPA 2018, PECR) and the Personal Data Processing Regulations.
- Respond to User support requests within the timeframes specified in the Service Level Agreement.
- Maintain comprehensive security measures including:
 - Encryption in transit (TLS 1.3+) and at rest (AES-256).
 - Role-Based Access Control (RBAC).
 - Multi-factor authentication for administrative access.
 - Daily automated backups with geographic redundancy.
 - 24/7 security monitoring.
 - Intrusion Detection System (IDS).
 - Regular security audits (monthly internal, quarterly extended, annual independent).
- Comply with the data retention and deletion timelines specified in the Privacy Policy.
- Notify Users of any personal data breaches within 72 hours in accordance with GDPR Article 33 requirements.

Full details of technical, organizational, and procedural safeguards are available in the Personal Data Processing Regulations.

7. PERSONAL DATA AND CONFIDENTIALITY

7.1. Data Protection Compliance

Processing of Users' personal data is carried out in accordance with:

- General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR).
- UK Data Protection Act 2018.
- Privacy and Electronic Communications Regulations (PECR).
- The Licensor's Privacy Policy and Consent Form for Personal Data Processing.

7.2. Data Privacy Principles

The Licensor:

- Does NOT use external analytics systems (such as Google Analytics, Mixpanel, or similar services)
- Collects usage data exclusively through internal systems for technical platform improvement only
- Does NOT share, sell, or exchange analytics data with any third parties
- Does NOT use data for user profiling, personalized advertising, or marketing purposes outside the platform
- Maintains strict confidentiality of all collected data

7.3. Third-Party Service Providers

For the purposes of ensuring the Platform's operation and fulfilling this Agreement, the Licensor may transfer anonymized or minimally necessary personal data to contractors (hosting providers, technical support, etc.) in compliance with applicable data protection laws. All such contractors are bound by strict confidentiality and data protection obligations and have been vetted for GDPR compliance.

7.4. User Data Control

Users have the right to:

- Access their personal data
- Request rectification of inaccurate data
- Request deletion of their data (right to erasure/"right to be forgotten")
- Request restriction of processing
- Object to processing
- Request data portability (receive data in machine-readable format)
- Withdraw consent at any time

All such requests will be processed within 30 days in accordance with the Privacy Policy and GDPR requirements. Requests should be submitted to: privacy@networking.one

7.5. Security Measures

The Licensor implements comprehensive security measures including:

Technical Measures:

- Encryption in transit: TLS 1.3 or higher
- Encryption at rest: AES-256 or equivalent
- Role-Based Access Control (RBAC)
- Multi-factor authentication (MFA) for administrative access
- Daily automated backups with geographic redundancy
- 24/7 security monitoring
- Intrusion Detection System (IDS)
- Firewalls and network security

Organizational Measures:

- Regular security audits (monthly internal, quarterly extended, annual independent).
- Staff training on data protection and security.
- Incident response procedures with defined timelines.
- Compliance with ISO 27001 and SOC 2 Type II standards.

Full details available in the Personal Data Processing Regulations.

7.6. Data Breach Notification

In the event of a personal data breach that is likely to result in a risk to Users' rights and freedoms, the Licensor will:

- Notify the relevant supervisory authority (ICO or other applicable authority) within 72 hours of becoming aware of the breach, as required by GDPR Article 33
- Notify affected Users without undue delay if the breach is likely to result in a high risk to their rights and freedoms, as required by GDPR Article 34
- Provide information about the nature of the breach, likely consequences, and measures taken to address the breach

Breach notifications will be sent to the email address associated with the User's account.

8. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

8.1. "AS IS" Provision

The Platform is provided "AS IS" and "AS AVAILABLE." The Licensor and IP Owner make no warranties, express or implied, regarding the Platform's absolute error-free operation, compatibility with the User's purposes, or uninterrupted availability.

8.2. Disclaimer of Warranties

To the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, the Licensor and IP Owner disclaim all warranties, including but not limited to:

- Warranties of merchantability
- Fitness for a particular purpose
- Non-infringement
- Accuracy, reliability, or availability of the Platform
- Error-free or virus-free operation

8.3. Limitation of Damages

The Licensor and IP Owner shall not be liable for:

- Losses arising from the use or inability to use the Platform
- Loss or corruption of data if such loss occurred due to the fault of the Client, their administrator, User, or third parties
- Actions of third parties who gained access to the User's account
- Actions of the Client and their Users if they violate the law or the terms of the Agreement
- Any indirect, incidental, special, consequential, or punitive damages, including but not limited to loss of profits, data, reputation, or any other intangible losses

8.4. Maximum Liability

To the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, the Licensor's total aggregate liability for all claims arising out of or relating to this Agreement shall not exceed the lesser of:

(a) The total amount paid by the Client for the Platform during the twelve (12) months preceding the event giving rise to the liability; OR

(b) EUR €10,000 (ten thousand euros)

8.5. User Responsibility

Users acknowledge that:

- They are solely responsible for their use of the Platform and any Content they create or upload.
- They must comply with all applicable laws and regulations.
- They must implement appropriate security measures to protect their account credentials.
- They bear the risk of any data loss that results from their own actions or failures.

8.6. Exceptions to Limitations

Nothing in this Agreement shall limit the Licensor's or IP Owner's liability for:

- Death or personal injury caused by negligence.
- Fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation.
- Gross negligence or willful misconduct.

- Violations of data protection laws (GDPR, UK DPA 2018) where liability cannot be limited.
- Any liability that cannot be excluded or limited under applicable law.

9. TERMINATION OF LICENSE

9.1. Grounds for Termination

The License terminates:

- At the User's initiative (by deleting their account or not renewing subscription)
- Upon the User's material violation of the terms of this Agreement
- By decision of the Licensor with notification to the User
- Upon expiration of the subscription period without renewal
- Upon mutual agreement of the parties
- If the IP Owner terminates the Licensor's right to operate the Platform (Users will be notified with reasonable notice)

9.2. Notice Period

The Licensor shall notify the Client at least seven (7) calendar days before the License termination date, except in cases of gross violation by the User of the terms of this Agreement, in which case immediate termination may occur.

9.3. Grace Periods and Data Recovery

After termination of the License for the Client, the following timeline applies for restoring access to the Platform or data:

Days 1-15: Limited "Guest Mode"

- User access will be restricted to read-only ("guest mode")
- The Client can view data but cannot make changes
- No new Content can be created or uploaded

Day 30: Account Deactivation

- User accounts of the Client's Users are deactivated
- Access to the Platform and user Content ceases
- Data remains stored but is inaccessible

Day 60: Account Soft Deletion

- The Client's account is deleted with possibility of recovery
- Recovery is possible within the subsequent 120 calendar days
- A reactivation fee may apply

Day 180: Permanent Deletion

- After 180 calendar days from the end of the paid period, the Client's account is permanently deleted without possibility of recovery
- Content will be permanently deleted or anonymized in accordance with the Privacy Policy and GDPR requirements
- All backups containing the account data will be purged

9.4. Data Export

Prior to account deactivation (within the first 30 days), Clients may request an export of their data in a standard machine-readable format (CSV, JSON, or similar). Such requests must be submitted to: support@networking.one

Data portability is provided in compliance with GDPR Article 20 (right to data portability).

9.5. Data Handling Upon Termination

Upon termination of the License, the User must cease using the Platform, and all their data shall be subject to deletion or anonymization within the timeframes established by the Privacy Policy and Section 9.3 of this Agreement.

9.6. Effect of Termination

Upon termination:

- All rights and licenses granted under this Agreement immediately cease

- The User must discontinue all use of the Platform
- Provisions of this Agreement that by their nature should survive termination shall survive, including but not limited to:
 - Intellectual property rights (Section 3 and 4)
 - Limitation of liability (Section 8)
 - Dispute resolution (Section 11)
 - Confidentiality obligations
 - Any outstanding payment obligations

10. MODIFICATION OF AGREEMENT TERMS

10.1. Right to Modify

The Licensors has the right to modify this Agreement and any Related Policies at any time. The new version takes effect from the moment of publication on the Platform's Website, unless a different date is specified.

10.2. Notification of Changes

10.2.1. The Licensors shall notify Clients of changes to the Agreement via:

- Email to the registered account email address
- In-platform notification upon next login
- Publication on the Website with change log

10.2.2. The Client must notify their Users of any changes accordingly and ensure their acceptance if required.

10.3. Material Changes and Re-Consent

For material changes that affect user rights, data processing practices, or impose new obligations, the Licensors will:

- Provide at least 30 days' advance notice before the changes take effect
- Clearly identify what has changed

- May require express re-consent from Users through an explicit acceptance mechanism (e.g., re-clicking "I Accept" or similar)

Material changes include, but are not limited to:

- Changes to data processing purposes
- Changes to data sharing practices
- Significant changes to user obligations or restrictions
- Changes to limitation of liability that reduce user protections
- Changes to dispute resolution mechanisms

10.4. Continued Use as Acceptance

Continued use of the Platform after the changes take effect signifies the Client's and User's acceptance of the new version, except where express re-consent is required.

If a User does not agree to the modified terms, they must:

- Cease using the Platform
- Export their data (within 30 days per Section 9.4)
- Delete their account or allow it to expire

11. APPLICABLE LAW AND DISPUTE RESOLUTION

11.1. Governing Law

This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of Georgia, without regard to its conflict of law provisions.

11.2. Dispute Resolution Process

All disputes arising from this Agreement shall first be resolved through good faith negotiation between the parties within 30 days.

If negotiation fails, disputes shall be brought before the courts of Tbilisi, Georgia, in accordance with Section 11.3.

11.3. Jurisdiction and Venue

Any legal action or proceeding arising under this Agreement shall be brought in the courts located in Tbilisi, Georgia, and the parties hereby consent to the personal jurisdiction of such courts.

11.4. Language

This Agreement is executed in English.

11.5. Waiver of Class Actions

The parties agree that any dispute resolution proceedings shall be conducted only on an individual basis and not in a class, consolidated, or representative action.

Each party waives any right to pursue disputes on a class or consolidated basis or in a representative capacity on behalf of others.

11.6. Limitation Period

Any claim or cause of action arising under this Agreement must be filed within one (1) year after the claim or cause of action arose, or it shall be forever barred.

12. FORCE MAJEURE

12.1. Force Majeure Events

The parties are released from liability for partial or complete non-performance of obligations under this Agreement if such non-performance resulted from force majeure circumstances that the parties could not foresee or prevent by reasonable measures.

12.2. Examples

Force majeure circumstances include but are not limited to:

- Natural disasters (earthquakes, floods, fires, hurricanes)
- War, terrorism, civil unrest, acts of government
- Epidemics, pandemics

- Strikes, labor disputes (not involving the party's own employees)
- Failure of public utilities or telecommunications networks beyond the party's control
- Cyberattacks, DDoS attacks, or other malicious acts beyond the party's reasonable control and prevention

12.3. Notification

The affected party must promptly notify the other party of the force majeure event, its expected duration, and steps being taken to mitigate its effects.

Notification should be sent to:

- For Licensor: legal@networking.one
- For Users: To the registered email address

12.4. Suspension and Termination

12.4.1. Performance of affected obligations shall be suspended for the duration of the force majeure event.

12.4.2. If the force majeure event continues for more than 30 consecutive days, either party may terminate this Agreement upon written notice without liability for termination.

12.4.3. The Licensor shall make reasonable efforts to restore service and minimize disruption, including:

- Implementing backup systems
- Communicating status updates to Users
- Providing estimated restoration timelines

13. GENERAL PROVISIONS

13.1. Entire Agreement

This Agreement, together with the Privacy Policy, Consent Form, Cookie Policy, Marketing Communications Consent, and Service Level Agreement (collectively, the "Entire Agreement"), constitutes the entire agreement between the parties and supersedes all prior or contemporaneous understandings and agreements, whether written or oral, regarding the subject matter.

13.2. Order of Precedence and Conflict Resolution

13.2.1. In the event of any conflict or inconsistency between this Agreement and any Related Policies, the documents shall be interpreted in the following order of precedence:

1. This EULA (End User License Agreement) — for license terms, intellectual property rights, user obligations, and contractual relationship with the Licensor.
2. Terms of Service — for acceptable use policies, account management, subscription and payment terms, service availability, and general platform usage rules.
3. Privacy Policy — for personal data processing matters, data subject rights, and data protection compliance.
4. Consent Form for Personal Data Processing — for specific consent requirements and lawful bases for processing.
5. Cookie Policy — for cookie and tracking technology matters.
6. Marketing Communications Consent — for marketing communications and promotional materials.
7. Service Level Agreement (SLA) — for service performance standards, uptime commitments, and support response times.

Note: The Personal Data Processing Regulations are internal operational procedures that are publicly available for transparency but are not contractually binding on Users. These regulations define how the Licensor implements the commitments made in the Privacy Policy, this EULA, and related documents.

13.2.2. More specific provisions in a Related Policy shall take precedence over general provisions in this EULA regarding the specific subject matter of that policy.

13.3. Severability

If any provision of this Agreement is found to be invalid, illegal, or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction:

- The remaining provisions shall continue in full force and effect

- The invalid provision shall be replaced with a valid provision that most closely approximates the intent and economic effect of the original provision

13.4. No Waiver

The failure of either party to enforce any right or provision of this Agreement shall not constitute a waiver of such right or provision unless acknowledged and agreed to in writing.

Any waiver must be:

- In writing
- Signed by the party against whom the waiver is sought to be enforced
- Limited to the specific instance cited

13.5. Assignment

13.5.1. Users: Users may not assign or transfer their rights or obligations under this Agreement without the Licensor's prior written consent. Any attempted assignment in violation of this provision is void.

13.5.2. Licensor: The Licensor may assign this Agreement without restriction to:

- Any entity within the AE Intellectual Property LTD corporate group
- A successor in interest in the event of merger, acquisition, or sale of assets

13.5.3. Users will be notified of any assignment that materially affects their rights under this Agreement.

13.6. Independent Contractors

The parties are independent contractors. This Agreement does not create any partnership, joint venture, employment, franchise, or agency relationship between the parties.

13.7. Notices

13.7.1. All notices under this Agreement must be in writing and delivered to:

To Licensor:

- Advanced Engineering 3D Printers LLC

- Email: legal@networking.one
- Address: [Georgia registered address – to be provided upon request]

To IP Owner:

- AE Intellectual Property LTD
- Email: legal@aeip.ltd
- Website: www.aeip.ltd
- Address: [Cyprus registered address – to be provided upon request]

To Users:

- To the email address registered with the User's account

13.7.2. Email notices are effective upon sending (with delivery confirmation). Legal notices should also be sent by registered mail or courier for formal documentation.

13.8. Survival

The following provisions survive termination of this Agreement and remain in full force and effect:

13.8.1. Indefinitely (Permanent):

- Intellectual Property ownership and restrictions (Section 3.1-3.3, 3.5)
- Limitation of Liability (Section 7.1-7.2)
- Governing Law and Jurisdiction (Section 10.1)
- Assignment restrictions (Section 10.7)

13.8.2. For 3 years after termination:

- Confidentiality obligations (implied from Section 6 and 7)
- Unpaid payment obligations (until paid or statute of limitations expires)

13.8.3. Until full data deletion (max 180 days):

- Data protection obligations (Section 6)
- Our obligation to delete your data per Privacy Policy (Section 8.2)

13.9. Headings

Section and subsection headings in this Agreement are for convenience only and shall not affect the interpretation of this Agreement.

13.10. Counterparts and Electronic Signatures

This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original and all of which together shall constitute one and the same instrument. Electronic signatures shall have the same legal effect as original signatures.
